GOABC MEMBERSHIP CODE OF ETHICS & STANDARDS

1. A member shall have particular regard to the provision of clean, sanitary accommodation and to promote the highest standards possible in the preparation of food.
2. A member is required to provide and maintain stock, equipment, food supplies and facilities commensurate with those as advertised to the public. A member who gives false or misleading information to prospective clients with regards to stock, equipment, food supplies or facilities contravenes the Code of Ethics and Standards. In addition, a member who gives false or misleading information relating to fees and expenses also contravenes the Code.
3. A member shall not trespass upon the rights of other members.
4. A member must be familiar with the Wildlife Act and other related statutes and the regulations enacted thereunder and should advise both employees and clients of their rights and responsibilities while under his or her jurisdiction.
5. A member shall practice sound wildlife conservation and promote and encourage its practice by others.
6. A member shall not cause, encourage or condone any violation of the Wildlife Act and/or related statutes and of the regulations passed thereunder and shall maintain high standards of public safety.

7. A member shall be willing and capable of making restitution in cash or in-kind for breach of contract between themselves and the customer where the customer is not at fault.
8. A member shall maintain a degree of proficiency, responsibility and professionalism satisfactory to the membership standards of the association.

PROCESS FOR COMPLAINTS

1. Before filing an Ethics and Standards Complaint, the complainant must attempt to remedy the situation with the guide outfitter.
2. The complainant must submit the Ethics and Standards Complaint Submission Form within six months of the completion of the hunt and send it to the Guide Outfitters Association of British Columbia (GOABC):

Mail: Suite 103 – 19140 28th Ave
Surrey, BC
V3Z 6M3
Email: policy@goabc.org
Fax: 604-541-6332

3. GOABC takes this process very seriously and substantial administration time is involved during the complaint process. Therefore, a fee of $500.00 is required with the Ethics and Standards Complaint Submission Form.
4. GOABC does not handle alleged Wildlife Act infractions. Instead, these should be reported to the BC Conservation Officer Service, via their Report All Poachers and Polluters (RAPP) hotline, available 24/7 at 1-877-952-RAPP (7277).
5. If the complainant retains legal counsel in the complaint, GOABC will close the case and allow the courts to decide.
6. Within one week of receipt of the Ethics and Standards Complaint Form, GOABC will:
 - a. Respond to the complainant to confirm that the complaint has been received, and;
 - b. Send a copy of the form to the guide outfitter named in the complaint. The outfitter will be provided four weeks to respond to the allegations using the Ethics and Standards Outfitter Response Form.
7. Within one week of GOABC receiving the Ethics and Standards Outfitter Response Form, the complete complaint package (both forms) will be provided to the Chair of the Ethics and Standards Committee.
8. Making the Decision
 - a. No Investigation

If, in the opinion of the Ethics and Standards Committee Chair, sufficient information to make a decision has been provided by the parties, he/she will review the submissions and make a recommendation to the Ethics and Standards Committee. The committee will then meet to discuss and make a decision. The office will then provide written notice to the complainant of the committee's decision by way of the Ethics and Standards Decision Letter. This decision will be issued within eight weeks of the committee receiving the Ethics and Standards Outfitter Response Form.
 - b. Investigation

If, in the opinion of the Ethics and Standards Committee Chair, additional information or clarity is needed on the submissions, an investigator will be assigned to the file. The investigator must be from a different region than the outfitter named in the complaint. The investigator will have eight weeks to get in contact with the outfitter, the complainant, and
